Cradle of Life

Profile: Emma Chandler

Emma Chandler (she/her) is a proud trans storyteller and theatre-maker based in Naarm. For over a decade, Emma has worked with kids and their grown-ups, connecting with them through kindness and wonder. Audiences declare Em's storytelling is "just magic", and that she "looks like an elf", while The Age says she's "pure enchantment". Join her as she encourages us to find our inner child with stories, songs, a little magic, and plenty of silliness. Emma will also be sharing The Gospel from the Edge - a retelling of Jesus of Nazareth's story from conception to resurrection.
