

sacrededge

Profile: Ro Allen

Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commissioner, Victoria.

Ro is an experienced and longstanding advocate for LGBTIQ+ Victorians. They have been a member of various Government LGBTIQ+ ministerial advisory groups and was previously Victoria's first Gender and Sexuality Commissioner.

Ro commenced their role as Victoria's Equal Opportunities and Human Rights Commissioner on 1 June 2021. Ro brings more than 25 years of experience in community services, governance and social justice.

Responsible for setting a high-impact policy agenda, Ro leads the Commission and works with the board and leadership team to define and progress the organisation's strategic objectives.

At Sacrededge, Ro will share their ongoing story as the Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commissioner and be available for conversation.

Ro will also be in conversation with Jonathan Butler, author of the book "The Boy in a Dress", exploring issues arising from this ground-breaking book.

Caption