Profile: Jenny & Peter Batten

Jenny is curious about the arts and spirituality and loves to explore points of connection that give life and sustain creativity. Singing and music has been a big part of Jenny's life. She loves to share that passion with others. This has been expressed in her role establishing the Melbourne Threshold choir, creating a compassionate presence to others. Jenny has completed a Masters in Therapeutic Arts Practices and has authored a booklet, "Attending to Presence – a Retreat in Daily Life". Jenny is also in formation as a Spiritual Director with the Living Well Centre.

Peter is a Uniting Church minister, Creative Arts Therapist, & accredited InterPlay teacher and practitioner. He enjoys exploring the connections between contemplative practices, spirituality, art and creativity and their integration into daily life. Peter has facilitated the contemplative photographic network in Melbourne and has a background in sacred Clowning/mime. He enjoys performing in a variety of community and institutional settings.
