Profile: Trish Watts

Trish believes passionately that 'Every life can SING and every community needs it's VOICE!' She is a performing artist, singer/songwriter, teacher and community choir director.

Whether working with a group or individuals her approach to life evokes joy, energy, freedom, trust and connection.

Cofounder of InterPlay Australia, Trish seeks to free the natural voice for playful daily encounters as a Voice Movement Therapy Practitioner. Her background is in Music Education and Sacred 'Spirited' World Music. Her life work has taken her around Australia and overseas to the UK, Europe, USA, India, South Africa and Cambodia, as guest artist, teacher and facilitator.

Trish cofounded the organization 'Cambodia Sings,' was Music Director for the Sydney Threshold Choir, and directed the Cambodia Threshold Choir and Phnom Penh Community Choir. Trish will collaborate with Tony Hole in presenting workshops, interplay, and singing at SacredEdge.
