

sacrededge

Profile: Regional Runways

Regional runways is a community not for profit organisation established to showcase emerging talent in both fashion and art from culturally diverse designers.

The initiative is pioneered by a group of Geelong-based creatives and designers. Their mission is to spotlight, support, and nurture diverse talent through collaboration with the Geelong business community, promoting inclusion, social cohesion and economic development.

Designers from Ukraine, Philippines, Africa and Afghanistan create unique textiles, embroidery and Jewellery.

Salma Gul brings Linen, silk and light wool hand-embroidered shawls.

Benett Hernandez brings her range of hand-made jewellery.

11am-4pm Saturday, Stokes St Marquee

Benett Hernandez
Regional Runways Market- Saturday

Salma Gul
Regional Runways Market- Saturday