Profile: Arabella Watson

Arabella is a quirky, creative, outgoing adventurous creature who loves a challenge. She had a ball riding 702km Solo on her bicycle around Tasmania, and has given a TEDx talk - about bike riding.

Her achievements include creating and running her own theatre company for 10 years.

Working for "Create" foundation, a peak advocacy body for young people in out of home care, Arabella organises Journey Camps based on Bush Adventure Therapy for children in Out of Home Care.

Library adventures include a Friday night poetry and burlesque show in Brisbane Public Library, and a "Loud in The Library" Youth Week program, with a full blown roller derby game in the library.

As a story teller and Artist, Arabella has travelled to many festivals around Victoria, as well as being Production Manager for the National Sustainable Living Festival, and key organiser of the Off Grid Living Festival and the Earth Frequency Festival.

Other experiences include coordinating a children's festival and other events and programs for the Brisbane City Council, and the Kick Arts festival.
