

sacred²⁰²⁵edge

stories of the edge

Profile : Candice Lorrae

Candice Lorrae is a multi-talented singer/songwriter and music producer, born on the ancestral lands of the Larrakia and now lives in Naarm on Kulin Country. As a proud woman of Jawoyn, Torres Strait Islander, Filipino and mixed European descent, Candice Lorrae has established herself as a prominent figure in the music industry over the past two decades, notably recognised for her contributions with the iconic pop duo, The Merindas. Candice Lorrae now embarks on a solo journey, passionately working on her debut album. Drawing inspiration from her own life, love and legacy. She describes her music as soulful folk-dream pop, music she hopes to inspire and continue the stories of her great family legacy - It's a story that audiences will be enchanted by.

