Profile: Em Chandler

Em Chandler (she/they) is a proud queer/trans storyteller and theatre-maker primarily working in Naarm/Melbourne and Ballarat. With over a decade of experience working with kids and their adults, Em adores connecting with others through kindness and wonder. She brings her unique repertoire of spells, stories and songs to every situation - from community events to major festivals such as Firelight and Midsumma. Em was cast in Lemony S Puppet Theatre's CROW KID for its Australian and international premieres. Additionally, Em has worked with acclaimed theatre-makers Anthony Crowley, Alister Smith, and A Blanck Canvas. The Sydney Morning Herald describes Em as "pure enchantment".
