

sacred²⁰²⁵edge

stories of the edge

Profile: Jill Shelton

Jill Shelton has been working in the Australian music industry for over thirty years as an artist manager, booking agent, promoter and producer, touring artists nationally and internationally.

She has worked alongside some of this country's most important singer songwriters, the late Archie Roach AC and Ruby Hunter, Kev Carmody, the Tiddas and in more recent years, Emma Donovan and Radical Son. In 2014 Archie and Jill established the Archie Roach Foundation and its acclaimed songwriting mentoring program, Singing Our Futures under the leadership of Candice Lorrae. In 2019 Jill worked with book publishers, Simon and Schuster Australia on Archie Roach's memoir, Tell Me Why and curated a songbook of lyrics and stories from Archie Roach AC and Ruby Hunter, Songs from the Kitchen Table, released in late 2023.

