

sacrededge²⁰²⁵

stories of the edge

Profile: Belinda Densley

Belinda Densley is a seasoned singer-songwriter and tireless advocate for all types of group singing. For 21 years Belinda has run Acabellas Singing in Geelong and the Bellarine welcoming to her groups those who wish to contribute to a community of voices for fun and wellbeing. Belinda has established and sustained countless beautiful singing groups, special event choirs, retreats and workshops as well as published research into the wellbeing impacts of singing. Belinda is currently completing a PhD researching the role of the group singing facilitator in supporting the benefits of group singing and its potential as a community health resource. Visit www.acabellas.com.au to connect with this research.

