Cradle of Life

Profile: Maddy Serong

Maddy Serong is a Melbourne-born singer-songwriter whose warm vocals and thoughtful songwriting draw on influences from artists like Fleetwood Mac, Crowded House, Liz Stringer and Patti Smith. After years of playing music around Melbourne, Maddy has begun work in voice coaching, music teaching and writing new songs that blend heartfelt lyricism with rich and honest vocals. In 2022 they released their debut EP This Decade, a collection of songs that explore connection, resilience and the search for authenticity in a changing world.

Maddy now lives and creates on Wadawurrung Country and brings a genuine, melodic presence to every performance, connecting with audiences through story and soul.
